FOURTH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON YOUTH AND LAND GOVERNANCE IN AFRICA

Theme: Acceleration of Youth Land Rights

We are excited to announce the Fourth International Youth and Land Governance Conference (CIGOFA 4) and invite distinguished speakers to join us in Arusha, (Tanzania), from October 20-24. This year's theme, "Acceleration of Youth Land Rights," aims to address the critical role of youth in land governance and the urgent need to secure land rights for young people.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE:

CIGOFA 4 provides a unique platform for young leaders, policymakers, researchers, and practitioners from around the world to discuss and develop innovative solutions to land governance challenges. The conference will feature keynote addresses, panel discussions, workshops, and networking opportunities.

CALL FOR SPEAKERS:

We invite experts, thought leaders, and practitioners in the fields of land governance, youth empowerment, sustainable development, and related areas to submit proposals to speak at CIGOFA 4. This is an excellent opportunity to share your knowledge, experiences, and insights with an international audience committed to accelerating youth land rights.

TOPICS OF INTEREST:

We are particularly interested in proposals that address, but are not limited to, the following topics:

- Conversations about Youth and Traditional Authority:
- Importance of Youth Land Rights
- Ensuring a Secure Future
- Promoting Dialogue
- Youth Perspectives
- Youth Housing Needs
- The Issue of Indigenous Youth
- Youth migration to urban areas
- AU Land Governance Strategy: Implementation youth land rights
